

MANY WITNESSES ACCUSE OFFICERS

They Tell Senate Committee of Lack of Protection During Sufrage Parade.

STORY OF EVANGELIST

Says She Was Insulted by Policeman on Day of Inauguration.

Washington, March 12.—A mass of small detail as to the disorder that attended the suffrage parade here on March 3 was elicited to-day by the Senate subcommittee investigating the occurrence, from thirty-one witnesses. The entire day was devoted to the examination of witnesses, who occupied the stand but a few minutes each.

Several men and women who marched in the parade told the committee of the trouble and embarrassment caused by the police along the line of March. Among these was Madame Munford, an evangelist, who, in addition to detailing her experiences in the parade, declared she had been roughly used by a Washington police captain, while watching the inauguration ceremonies the next day. She said that Captain James E. Mulhall had refused to allow her to cross the police lines with a suffrage banner handed her roughly and exclaimed: "You women had your day yesterday."

Charges against Captain Mulhall in connection with the incident are being investigated by the police department.

A dozen Washington business men, who were organized into a committee of public order for the inaugural period, and who, in automobiles, endeavored to aid the police in subduing the disorder during the suffrage parade, testified. They declared that the police had done all that was humanly possible to handle the crowd, but that the gathering was too large to be controlled.

Captain H. Schneider, who was in charge of the police detail at the point on Pennsylvania Ave. where the crowd was densest and where the cavalry was finally called on for aid, defended his men. He declared that he and his officers worked faithfully in their efforts to clear the street.

"Had you any reason to think," asked Senator Jones, "that Major Sylvester, or any one else at headquarters, would overlook an neglect of duty in connection with this parade?"

"No," answered the captain, emphatically.

He declared that Major Sylvester had been emphatic and explicit in his instructions to his subordinates, and that while the men of the department might have been admonished to work faithfully, he declared they did so. He had never heard Major Sylvester speak disparagingly of the parade or of the women in charge of it.

The committee adjourned until Friday, when other police officials will testify.

INJURED HUSBAND GIVES HIS VERSION

Tells How He Found Chief
Kohler Hiding Behind
Icebox.

Cleveland, O., March 12.—Samuel D. Schaefer, former husband of the woman with whom it is charged Chief of Police Fred Kohler was guilty of immoral conduct, to-day told the civil service commission his version of the circumstances of the Schaefer home which constitutes the basis for charges against the police chief.

The prosecution then rested and Dr. Maurice Budwig, first witness for the defense, testified he had prescribed for Kohler while the chief was at home in bed on February 19, the day after his first alleged visit to the Schaefer home.

On the night of June 5, 1912, Schaefer said he smashed a window in his home after finding the doorbell

Clears Skin of Worst Eruptions

Remarkable Action of a Remedy That Drives Every Speck of Poison From Body.

There is a strange, mysterious power in a remarkable blood medicine that finds its way through the circulation by what is known as Divine selection. The remedy is Swift's Sure Specific, or S. S. S. Science cannot explain just why certain elements in the blood feed the bones, others nourish the hair roots, and so on. And it is this same mysterious action of S. S. S. that attacks all diseased spots, drives away all germs, heals all sores and supplants the activity of disease germs with the powerful healing action of leucocytes. Remarkable testimonials have been written to prove beyond question that there is no blood disease but what can be cured by S. S. S. And in all those cases that were treated with mercury, iodides, arsenic, copper and other minerals with no permanent effect, the most astonishing recoveries have been made by S. S. S.

There is not a blood taint of any nature that can remain in a system fortified by this most wonderful remedy, for it is absolutely pure and contains only those elements that the blood naturally assimilates, and which the tissues gratefully accept. It agrees with the most delicate stomach, even in those cases where the use of strong drugs has so weakened the digestive system that medicine cannot be given. Get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store and doubtless be assured of a complete cure of any eruptive blood disease. If your case is peculiar and you desire special advice write to The Swift Specific Co., Medical Dept., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

NO AGREEMENT REACHED. Directors of Railroad Companies Consider Dissolution Plans.

New York, March 11.—No agreement on the dissolution plan of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company was reached to-day at meetings of the directors of the companies and the executive committee of the Union Pacific.

Neither the executive committee nor the directors of the Union Pacific will meet again this week. This was agreed upon in the meeting of the directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and the directors of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, which was held at the company's headquarters in New York City. The agreement expires next Saturday.

HOBBLES WILL BE STILL TIGHTER

Paris, Arbitrator of Fashions, Says
They Have Been Too
Loose.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, March 12.—Paris, in her role of arbitrator of fashions, has decreed hobbles tighter than ever for the spring styles, according to C. C. Kutzmann, who returned to-day from the French capital, where he had gone in the interests of New York importers.

"The latest thing in Paris creations carry the hobble to the extreme," said Kutzmann, "especially in the newest style gown known as the radio empire. While the new fashions will be narrower around the ankles, however, they will have more room at the hips and knees and at least the women will be able to sit down comfortably in them. The material will be somewhat gauzier and the hobbles will be cut lower at the neck."

"It is a mistake," he added, "to think that Paris dressmakers will decide upon and decide upon the coming fashions. The majority of the new ones this season were suggested by Mme. Margot Groux, a wealthy and talented Parisienne. Women have been hired to follow her and to reproduce her new gowns. As soon as one style becomes general, Mme. Groux designs another."

TO HENRICO JAIL FOR SAFE-KEEPING

Two Convicted Murderers Will Be Removed From Spotsylvania County.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., March 12.—Judge R. H. L. Childers, of the Circuit Court of Spotsylvania County, on the request of Commonwealth's Attorney T. Stokely Coleman, has entered an order directing that Nelson V. Carter, white, convicted in that court of the murder of his wife and sentenced to be electrocuted, and E. L. L. Waller, colored, convicted of the murder of Mansfield Thornton and Melvina Thornton, his wife, and sentenced, be taken from the Spotsylvania jail to the Henrico County jail, for safekeeping. The jail at Spotsylvania is regarded as insecure for keeping, for any considerable time, the two prisoners under the death sentence. The prisoners cannot be taken to the penitentiary yet, owing to the fact that the question of an appeal in each case has not been definitely disposed of. Sheriff G. W. Waller, Deputy Sheriff W. B. Foster and J. A. Pendleton were designated to have charge of the prisoners and deliver them to the Henrico jail authorities. The two convicted men will be taken to Henrico without delay.

At a meeting held here in the interests of securing rights of way for the railroad to be built from Hampton through Gloucester, Middlesex, Essex, and Spotsylvania Counties to Fredericksburg, and to which Spotsylvania County has agreed to contribute lands between this point and fifteen miles beyond Fredericksburg were invited. C. O'Connor Goodrick presided and introduced Channing M. Ward, of Richmond, who manages the affairs of the proposed railroad, and gave a history of the movement for the building of the railroad and the development from that time up to the present. He answered a number of questions and gave information as far as was possible. Following Mr. Ward's talk, there was a general informal discussion. The sentiment of the meeting was in favor of the railroad, and all desire to see it constructed. Deeds have been prepared for the land required from each of the different pieces of property, and were delivered to those present for their examination, and they were asked to make a report at a later date. The meeting was regarded as a success in every way. Among those present were Capt. R. C. Vance, Henry Warden, C. O'Connor Goodrick, Henry Warden, A. P. Rowe, Colonel E. D. Cole, Isaac Hirsch.

Anytime Board Meets.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Williamsburg, Va., March 12.—The local board of directors of the Eastern State Hospital held its regular monthly meeting here last night, the members present being Dr. H. U. Stephenson, of Roanoke, and C. D. West, of Newport News. Colonel J. M. Bauseman, State Commissioner of Hospitals; Dr. King, superintendent of the Southwestern State Hospital; Dr. Marion, of Delmar; Dr. G. W. G. W. Warden, of Staunton, were also in attendance upon the meeting. Only routine business was transacted.

TRAILED BY BLOODHOUNDS

Dogs Lead Pursuers to Fugitive in Station at Starkey.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., March 12.—After an all-night hunt in Roanoke County, the city police this morning arrested Percy Hansbrough, who last night, together with Guy Akers, took possession of Dr. H. E. Jones's horse and buggy and started on a tour of the open country south of this city. Last night, following the discovery of the theft, the rig, the physician notified the police, and it was learned that the men who had taken the buggy had headed southward. The pursuers followed them and finally overtook them. The young men resisted, and Hansbrough fired at one of the officers. The bullet struck Akers, but did not wound him seriously. The pistol shot frightened the horse, which ran away with Akers in the buggy. In the course of the excitement, Hansbrough escaped in the darkness.

Akers was brought back to the city and lodged in jail, and then a party of officers with bloodhounds set out to locate Hansbrough. The dogs took up the trail and led the officers to the station at Starkey, where one of them found Hansbrough. The young man was seated in the station, and when he saw the officers he pulled a revolver. However, the policeman was too quick and fired his Winchester shotgun, wounding the man in the right shoulder. He was brought to Roanoke. His wound is not serious.

SET NEW WORLD'S RECORDS.

Scout Cruiser Salem Makes Remarkable Trip Across Atlantic.

Gibraltar, March 11.—It was announced to-day that the United States scout cruiser Salem, on her trip across the Atlantic to this port, set several new world's records for consistent and wireless communication by daylight.

The Salem was sent out to make tests with the new power transmission system, which is being developed by the United States Navy. The ship was able to send complete day messages to Arlington from distances up to 1,500 miles and to receive from distances above 2,400 miles. Night transmission dispatches were considerably greater.

Steamer Released From Reef.
Key West, Fla., March 11.—A wireless message received here today from the revenue cutter Miami stated that the British steamer Hawth Head was released from Melanesia reef, on the Florida coast, and was brought into Key West harbor. No news was received of the British steamer Lugano, wrecked on August 1, and the crew of the Lugano are still with their ship.

FEW WITNESS CLOSE OF LEGISLATIVE

Trains Take Lawmakers Away
Before Final Fall of Gavel.

Raleigh, N. C., March 12.—The simultaneous fall of the session of the Senate and the House of Representatives, sounding the close of the 1913 session of the North Carolina General Assembly, took place at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of the smallest number of members and spectators in many sessions, probably less than fifty members of both houses being present, and considerably less than that number of spectators. Final adjournment had been expected earlier in the day, but tardiness of the Senate in disposing of calendar bills and the necessary wait thereafter for the final batch of enrolled bills for ratification, compelled a large number of members to take outgoing trains before adjournment was reached.

The last hour of the Senate was taken up largely with remarks by members on their impressions of the session. Senator Council of Catawba, a recognized leader, declared that in his opinion some very good legislation has been gotten through this session, and that a balance sheet will prove very creditable for the Legislature. He had greatly enjoyed the session and his association with his fellow legislators.

Senator Jones, of Forsyth, commented that this seemed to have been a leaderless Senate, every Senator taking his own progressive or stand-pat course. He felt that the Legislature had not been as progressive as the people demanded in some respects.

In the Senate, the motion for sine die adjournment was made by Senator Pharr, seconded by Senator Hobbard. In the House this motion was by Representative Koonce with numerous seconds.

GROCERY ROBBED BY MILITAMEN

Now Commander of Regiment Is Trying to Find Guilty Soldiers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Milledgeville, N. Y., March 12.—The commander of the First Regiment, The National Guard, is endeavoring to ferret out the soldiers who are said to have robbed a grocery store in C. Street, Washington, of goods valued at $300 at the time of the inaugural parade.

Captain Ballman of Company I, this city, to-day received a communication from regimental headquarters inquiring whether the officers or members of the company know anything concerning the robbery. The reply was sent that they knew nothing of the affair. The store was conducted by a woman, who makes the complaint. The robbery is said to have occurred during the formation of the parade.

Now is the Golden Time to Hustle for the Many Valuable Prizes in $20,000 Contest.

What the Wise Man Says: 'Make Good'

Cut out "if," "could," and "should." And start in to saw wood. You can still have the best of things in life like the rest of those who've achieved. Just because they believed in themselves. You're deceived if you think Fortune comes with a pat of drums. And a faint state. To serve YOURS on a plate. That isn't the way. That she visits to-day. Plunge into the fight. Hit to left and right. Don't let up with your striking. Till things meet your liking. It makes the world bitter. To look at a quitter. Fate scowls when she sees. A Growl on his knees. Why the freckle-backed toads. Have the sense to keep jumping. And here you stand frumping.

DON'T HESITATE ANY LONGER.
Have you been hesitating about entering The Times-Dispatch's great $20,000 subscription contest? Probably just at first you could not quite make up your mind to do so. Little difficulties occurred to you. By degrees they seemed small and trifling compared with the wonderful prizes you could win.

By this time, perhaps, you are afraid that some one who entered before you has gained a lead which it would be difficult to overcome. Could anything be more opportune for such a case as yours than the big rate of votes now on, and lasting until March 22? Now, while a new yearly subscription to the Daily and Sunday Times-Dispatch will count 2,000 votes in your favor, you will find it more than possible to overtake the most industrious candidate so far.

LOOK AT THE PRIZE LIST.

When you look at that prize list does not a spark of genuine enthusiasm kindle within you? Naturally, you would prefer to win the $2,055 Kline touring car, although for ladies who like to look their very best as they go on their shopping or calling tours, the Baker electric might be considered preferable.

While it is well to enter with the full assurance that your chance of winning the very best is fully as good as any one's, you must not make the mistake of overlooking the great value of the other prizes.

Many enter a contest, but few stick to it with sufficient zeal to alarm an earnest rival. You can note, as the contest progresses, that there are a number who, having run the race swiftly for a short time, lose their breath before they are anywhere near the end.

As they begin to lag it is your opportunity to catch up, pass them and improve your standing. These opportunities will occur so often that you will be pushed automatically much nearer the head of the list. The remaining places you must capture by your own effort.

SEND IN YOUR PHOTOGRAPH.

In a few days The Times-Dispatch will begin to publish the pictures of active candidates. You will do the management a favor by sending or bringing in your photograph for this purpose.

MAKE YOUR PREPARATIONS NOW.

You may just as well start now to make your preparations for winning. An early start will give you the advantage of a day, two days, a week, as the case may be.

At the close of the contest you are going to find every minute valuable. While there are still plenty of minutes to use, it would be best for you to make use of them. At this time there are not only more days ahead of you than there will ever be again, but each day can be made of more value than later on in the contest.

At present the big rate of votes is on and will last until March 22. If you can secure six, or a dozen, or sixteen subscriptions in a day, the day's work will net you a greater profit now, while the rate of votes is highest.

Do not deceive yourself with the idea that you will be given a little more time at the close. It is not aimed to favor those who have been dilatory. It would not be fair to urge the active workers to haste, and then give the procrastinators the same chances that they would have had if they had been prompt.

SUBSCRIBERS EASILY GAINED.

It is no difficult matter to secure subscriptions to The Times-Dispatch. The paper has a host of friends whom you will have no trouble in inducing to renew their subscriptions. Every one who reads The Times-Dispatch speaks of it so highly that you will find those who do not already take it are quite prepared to do so. They need only the incentive which your request will give them to make them regular readers and fast friends of The Times-Dispatch.

NAMES ON FIRST COUPONS.

Some candidates take a great deal of unnecessary time and trouble by writing out their names and addresses on every slip of a package of coupon votes. If you will write the name and address clearly on the first two or three of a package and secure them together there is no chance of their not being all counted for you. As the time you vote to the contest is precious you should not waste it in this way. Better use the time spent in writing your name one hundred times in interviewing a prospective subscriber.

Put on your hat now and go out after that man who ought to do you a favor. Show him where he can get even with you by writing his name down for a year.

Odds and Ends From the Wire

ALL EAGER TO PAY FOR HER.
Judge, Lawyers and Jurors Anxious to Bear Defendant's Burden.

New York, March 12.—Two lawyers, twelve jurymen and the justice himself all contended in Justice Rucker's part of the Supreme Court over the privilege of paying damages of $1 awarded to Mrs. Chae Kamil, who had sued Rose Eisenberg, a comely young woman, for alienation of the affections of Joseph Kamil. Mrs. Kamil had asked for $10,000 when the stand Rose declared she was unaware that Kamil was a married man. After an absence of one minute the jury returned and announced they had awarded Mrs. Kamil $1 damages.

"The jury wish to pay the judgment," said the foreman.

"Oh, no, I'll pay the judgment," rejoined Justice Rucker.

"I beg your honor's pardon," chimed in Justice Sutherland, the plaintiff's counsel. "Let me pay it."

"Well, I am the defendant's lawyer," said Paul Gross very emphatically, "and I claim that it is my right to pay this bill on her behalf. He thrust a bill into the clerk's hand."

WARDEN NABS WRONG MAN.

Captain McKenty's Cherry Hill "Dope" Goes Wrong, For Once.
Harrisburg, Pa., March 12.—Step thief! Step thief! yelled a man running up Third Street near the county jail.

Warden McKenty, of the Eastern Penitentiary, who was on duty, saw the man and heard that cry before, said the warden. It is made by the real thief to throw the officers off the trail and he dashed out and grabbed the man who was yelling.

CHURCH IS COMPLETED.

It Will Be Used For First Time Sunday Morning.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Ruckey Mount, N. C., March 12.—Next Sunday for the first time the congregation of the First Baptist Church of this city will worship in the handsome new building just being completed. The new house of worship, erected at a cost of about $40,000, is one of the handsomest church buildings in the State. The Sunday school room in the rear of the church auditorium was completed some months ago, and the congregation has been using that. To celebrate the practical completion of the new building the congregation will have a series of special services. The formal opening exercises will begin Friday evening, with services on Saturday evening also. A number of the pastors who have formerly served the charge here will return to take a part. On Sunday morning the opening sermon will be preached by Rev. R. T. Vann, president of Meredith College of Raleigh, N. C. It is noteworthy that the congregation here, which is not an unusually large one, has practically paid for the work on the church, as it has progressed. As the church stands complete, there is no need of any more money, and it is the expectation of the leaders to have this amount paid so as to have the dedicatory ceremonies not later than May.
